iVote Selected for Inclusion in the 2014-15 European Business Awards

iVote, the leading provider of election management, e-commerce and e-learning systems, with its business potential has been selected for inclusion in the 2014-15 European Business Awards, sponsored by RSM. RSM is a global audit, tax and advisory network, united by a common desire to provide the highest quality of services in the business. After deep analysis that took eight months, a group of professional researches invite iVote to take active part at the competition. Over 17.000 companies across Europe were analysed according three criteria: commercial success, innovation and business ethics. iVote as a company with strong drive of innovation and business prosperity, has been selected for entry in the UKTI Innovation category.

“We are pleasantly surprised and excited about this nomination. We were informed that iVote has been subject of assessment by competent professionals from all over the world. Once again iVote team’s hard work and perseverance have been acknowledged and enlighten. Innovation, team work, devoted business principles and culture has leaded us to another international prestigious event where competition is fierce and tough.” said Tomislav Zografski, Managing Director of iVote.

European Business Awards have several stages before announcement of the winners. In the first phase, National Champions from every country will be selected by a judging panel. In the second stage, 100 companies will be awarded Ruban d’Honneur award and 30 companies will be announced as ‘National Public Champions’ based on the online voting from the public. In the final stage, online voting will determine the winners by categories and 1 National Public Champion will be announced at the Gala Ceremony.

“Representing Macedonia in the name of iVote is responsible and challenging commitment. We are delighted that we are chosen among 17.000 other companies to participate at the European Business Awards 2014-15. Company strategy and excellence of the members of the iVote family have brought us step further in the European business society.” said prof. Ljupcho Antovski, board member and COO of iVote.
