iVote Named 'National Winner' in Prestigious European Competition

iVote has been named 'National Winner' in the 2017-18 European Business Awards, Europe's largest business competition, sponsored by RSM.

iVote was chosen from 2,898 businesses previously identified as 'Ones to Watch' in a list of business excellence published in December and selected as a National Winner by a panel of independent judges including senior business leaders, politicians and academics as the best business in Macedonia in the Award for Innovation category. iVote will now go on to represent Macedonia in the final stage of the competition.

iVote as a company specializing in implementation of election modernization technologies, e-learning services and e-testing solutions as well as e-content development, provides time critical and secure web based solutions for both, business and public administration institutions worldwide

"We are delighted to be National Winner in the Innovation category. Being innovative and creative in today's fierce competition is not an easy job. Our passion to develop state of the art software solutions has grown into a business culture that is nurtured by all iVote's members. " – stated Elena Temelkovska, CEO of iVote.

The European Commission honoured iVote with including it in the biannual publication "The Secret of Success" with companies that are transforming Europe's economy.

Adrian Tripp, CEO of the European Business Awards said: "This is an amazing achievement and iVote is clearly a stand out leader in their field. To be a National Winner means you represent our core values of success, ethics and innovation and are one of the best in Europe. We wish you the best of luck in the final round."

On 22 and 23 May in Warsaw, the final round of judging will take place and the Gala Ceremony where the overall category winners for 2017/18 European Business Awards sponsored by RSM will be announced.

Separately iVote is also competing in a public vote to be named 'European Public Winner' at the Gala Final. The public vote engages with people from across the globe and last year generated almost 250,000 votes.

The European Business Awards is now in its 11th year and its primary purpose is to support the development of a stronger and more successful business community throughout Europe. This year it considered over 110,000 businesses from 34 countries. Sponsors and partners include RSM, ELITE, Germany Trade & Invest, PR Newswire, Bureau Van Dijk and SDL Managed Translation.
